

The BESA Post-Soviet Conflicts Research Program and the Jerusalem Multidisciplinary College invites you to:

The Roundtable:
Olim and Immigrants from the
Former Soviet Union Between Israel and the
Diaspora: Trends, Challenges, and Opportunities

שולחן עגול:
עולים ומהגרים מבריה"מ לשעבר בין ישראל לתפוצות:
מגמות, אתגרים והזדמנויות

Круглый стол:
Олим и эмигранты из бывшего СССР между
Израилем и диаспорой: тенденции, вызовы
и возможности

A round-table on identity, language, communication, and socioeconomic integration of olim from the former Soviet Union in Israel and Jewish communities in the post-Soviet space and their diaspora in the West will bring together researchers and people in the field.

Languages of presentations: English, Hebrew, Russian

Monday | September 8th 2025 | 17:00 - 19:00
The Begin-Sadat Center seminar room
(Building 203, Room 131)

besacenter.org

The Round-table: “Olim and Immigrants from the Former Soviet Union Between Israel and the Diaspora: Trends, Challenges, and Opportunities”

שולחן עגול “עולים ומהגרים מבריה”מ לשעבר בין ישראל לתפוצות: מגמות, אתגרים והזדמנויות

Круглый стол «Олим и эмигранты из бывшего СССР между Израилем и диаспорой: тенденции, вызовы и возможности»

Organizers: The BESA Post-Soviet Conflicts Research Program and the Jerusalem Multidisciplinary College (JMC)

This round-table on identity, language, communication, and socioeconomic integration of olim from the former Soviet Union in Israel and Jewish communities in the post-Soviet space and their diaspora in the West will bring together researchers and people in the field. It will focus on:

· Interrelations between the space of origin and the space of integration, and the differences between “new” and “veteran” immigrants and between the first, 1.5, and the second generations.

· The role of the Russian-language media, from newspapers and television to digital platforms, in shaping political identity, trust in institutions, and socioeconomic mobility.

· An up-to-date picture of trends and challenges among immigrants and communities in the diaspora will be presented, alongside an analysis of problems and difficulties that have arisen recently.

Languages of presentations: English and Russian

Date: 8 September 2025, 17:00 – 19:00
Place: The Begin-Sadat Center seminar room
(Building 203, Room 131).

The BESA Post-Soviet Conflicts Research Program and the Jerusalem Multidisciplinary College invites you to:

The Roundtable:
Olim and Immigrants from the
Former Soviet Union Between Israel and the
Diaspora: Trends, Challenges, and Opportunities

שולחן עגול:
עולים ומהגרים מבריה"מ לשעבר בין ישראל לתפוצות:
מגמות, אתגרים והזדמנויות

Круглый стол:
Олим и эмигранты из бывшего СССР между
Израилем и диаспорой: тенденции, вызовы
и возможности

A round-table on identity, language, communication, and socioeconomic integration of olim from the former Soviet Union in Israel and Jewish communities in the post-Soviet space and their diaspora in the West will bring together researchers and people in the field.

Languages of presentations: English, Hebrew, Russian

Monday | September 8th 2025 | 17:00 - 19:00
The Begin-Sadat Center seminar room
(Building 203, Room 131)

besacenter.org

The Round-table: “Olim and Immigrants from the Former Soviet Union Between Israel and the Diaspora: Trends, Challenges, and Opportunities”

שולחן עגול "עולים ומהגרים מבריה"מ לשעבר בין ישראל לתפוצות: מגמות, אתגרים והזדמנויות

Круглый стол «Олим и эмигранты из бывшего СССР между Израилем и диаспорой: тенденции, вызовы и возможности»

Organizers: The BESA Post-Soviet Conflicts Research Program and the Jerusalem Multidisciplinary College (JMC)

This round-table on identity, language, communication, and socioeconomic integration of olim from the former Soviet Union in Israel and Jewish communities in the post-Soviet space and their diaspora in the West will bring together researchers and people in the field. It will focus on:

· Interrelations between the space of origin and the space of integration, and the differences between “new” and “veteran” immigrants and between the first, 1.5, and the second generations.

· The role of the Russian-language media, from newspapers and television to digital platforms, in shaping political identity, trust in institutions, and socioeconomic mobility.

· An up-to-date picture of trends and challenges among immigrants and communities in the diaspora will be presented, alongside an analysis of problems and difficulties that have arisen recently.

Languages of presentations: English and Russian

Date: 8 September 2025, 17:00 – 19:00
Place: The Begin-Sadat Center seminar room
(Building 203, Room 131).